LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—The Museum will be open Saturday evening, Sept. 4, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

—The Golden Cross society gives a dance in Pythian hall after the band concert this evening.

—A new piece of music, "Bridal Echoes," by Miss Ethel E. Joy of Peacham, may be found on sale at the music stores.

—The Royal Italian Juvenile band of 30 pieces will give a concert in the Stanley Opera House on Monday, Sept. 13.

—The annual meeting of the Choral Union will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall on Tuesday evening, Sept. 14, at 8 o'clock.

—William S. Sayward of Boston, assignee of the firm of Wilson & King, has offered to settle with the creditors 40 cents on the dollar.

—C. G. Bruley offers $5 in gold, $3 and $1.50 in footwear and 2 tickets to the Caledonia County fair to the four who bring to his store the biggest squash before Sept. 11.

—The Bicycle club gave a most successful lantern parade on Tuesday evening.
There were 50 wheels in the procession and they were effectively and prettily illuminated. After the parade refreshments were served at Y. M. C. A. hall.

—The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Sept. 6 at 3 o'clock, at Pythian hall. The programme for the afternoon has been arranged by the history and travel committee, and will be of special interest. Executive board meeting at 2 o'clock.

—Seven miles of handkerchiefs are a good many, yet one of our local mathematicians has figured that the new lot of handkerchiefs recently arrived at the Brooks-Tyler store, will, if laid side by side, reach from here to Danville Green, seven miles away.

—A Holiness camp meeting is to be held at Morrisville next week, and the Boston & Maine railroad will sell round trip tickets to the above named place, which are good going Aug. 30 to Sept. 7, and good returning until Sept. 8. Inquire of ticket agents for information.

—H. G. Tucker of Boston gave a piano recital at Brantview last Friday evening that was a rare treat to the music loving people of St. Johnsbury. Mr. Tucker chose most of his selections from the great German composers, and they were given with an artistic finish and grace that delighted all his audience. After the recital refreshments were served.

—Eighty tickets were sold from here last Sunday to the excursion to Portland and Old Orchard. There will be another excursion there next Sunday. The train leaves here at 2 a. m. and returns Monday at 1.30 a. m. The fare to Old Orchard and return is $2.25 and to Portland $2.

—This is a good year for crops, and up to the present time the crop of agents has surpassed all previous years. Hardly a day passes but what a book agent or a kindred visitor calls and delays the busy man from five to 15 minutes. A pretty good way to help the town is to spend your money in town and give the foreign agents a wide berth.

—At the annual meeting of the Connecticut and Passumpsic Rivers Railroad company at Newport, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock directors were elected.
At the directors meeting these officers were elected: Amos Darnes of Boston, president; Alden Spear of Boston, vice-president; James H. Williams of Bellows Falls, treasurer; Henry C. Cleveland of Coventry, secretary.

PERSONALS.

Miss Maud McCutcheon is sick at the hospital with typhoid fever.

Miss Flora Simpson of Boston is spending her vacation at her old home.

Charles Turner of Passaic, N. J., is visiting his uncle, A. W. Hawkins.

Mrs. L. P. Wood of New York has been the guest of Mrs. Henry C. Newell.

Fred E. Potts and family have been spending the week in the White Mountains.

Homer E. Smith, cashier of the First National Bank, was taken suddenly sick Sunday and has been quite sick ever since.

Mrs. Robert Mackinnon and son Hugh have been spending the week in Sherbrooke visiting her sister, Mrs. George H.
Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Denison of New Bedford, Mass., and Harold French of Hartford have been the guests of Mrs. P.
F. Hazen.

Alfred H. Brooks leaves for Nashua this week to take the position of organist and choir leader of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Mrs. E. A. Walker of Pasadena, Cal., came from Lancaster last week to visit at the home of Col. Frank Walker on Summer street.

Carl M. Richards left Tuesday morning for Northampton, Mass., where he has secured a position with the shoe firm of Cowing & Drury.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Fairbanks gave a party at Elmwood on Monday evening in honor of their guests, Dr. and Mrs.
H. T. Fuller of Springfield, Mo.

Rev. Howard A. Bridgman, managing editor of the Congregationalist of Boston, was here yesterday for a short visit returning from western Vermont where he has spent his vacation.

Caspar R. Kent, foreman of the job department of the Burlington Free Press and a former employee of the CALEDONIAN office, was called here this week to attend the funeral of J. A. Marshall.

The last number of Zion's Herald contains a fine picture of Rev. Dr. T. P.
Frost of the First Methodist church, Baltimore, formerly pastor of Grace Methodist church, St. Johnsbury. With the picture is also printed one of Dr.
Frost's able sermons.

Dr. H. S. Browne left yesterday for Albuquerque, N. M., to visit his daughter and to attend the territorial fair.
The fair is one of the most unique exhibitions of its kind in the world and Dr.
Browne will write about it in a future number of the CALEDONIAN.

The many St. Johnsbury friends of Mrs.
Martha Dana Shepard of Boston, the well-known festival pianist, will be interested to learn that the musical convention at Claremont last week was her last public appearance. Mrs. Shepard, after over 30 years of continuous service, has made a host of friends all over northern New England and she is a lady that will be greatly missed in musical entertainments.

Miss Cordelia C. Nevers, a former student at St. Johnsbury Academy, is visiting friends here for a short time. Miss Nevers has accepted a position as teacher in a girls' seminary to be established at Johannisberg, South African Republic, and sails October 9 for Holland. After visiting the schools in that country she will sail for her new field of labor. Miss Nevers is a graduate of Northfield Seminary and Wellesley College and her many friends wish her much success in her South African home.

The Morrisville News and Citizen says that the late P. K. Gleed of that town was offered the post of minister to Venezuela but declined it on account of his health. President McKinley then tendered him the appointment of national bank examiner, the position now held by Elisha May. Mr. Gleed accepted this appointment but did not live to receive official notice of it. The same paper says that Mr. May's successor will be William A. Lord of Montpelier, speaker of the last House.

Vicinity Fairs.—For the convenience of those who want to go to the fairs this month we give below a list of those in this vicinity:

Caledonia county, St. Johnsbury, Sept.
14, 15 and 16.

Lamoille county at Morrisville, Sept.
21, 22 and 23.
Northern Caledonia at Lyndonville, Sept. 22 and 23.

Wells River Dairymen's Association at South Ryegate, Sept. 21 and 22.

The Morrisville Fair.—The Lamoille county fair occurs on Wednesday and Thursday, September 22d and 23d. The races for the first day include the 2.50 class for a purse of $100; the 2.34 class for $150 and the 2.23 class for a purse of $175. On Thursday the entries will be:
2.40 class, purse $125; 2.30 class, purse $150; 2.19 class, purse $200. All races open to pacers and trotters. Entry fee five per cent with an additional five per cent from winners. Entries close Thursday, September 16. All entries to be made to A. A. Niles, secretary, Morrisville.

Our School Superintendent.—At the last meeting of the school board of Binghamton, N. Y., the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, Herbert J. Jones has offered his resignation as principal of the Carroll street school, be it

Resolved, That the members of this board do hereby extend to him a vote of thanks for the untiring faithfulness and high intelligence with which he has discharged the duties of his position during the past three years; that we give expression to our appreciation of his many and scholarly qualities in stimulating his pupils to a higher sense of their responsibilities and a more earnest desire to accomplish the highest objects of the school life; and that we wish him unflinching success in the work upon which he enters.

Mr. Jones enters upon his duties next week as superintendent of the St. Johnsbury schools and we bespeak for him the heartiest cooperation of all our townspeople in his work.

Death of J. A. Marshall.—John A.
Marshall died at his residence on Cliff street Saturday afternoon of bronchitis.
Though in poor health all the year, never having fully recovered from a severe attack of the grip last winter, he kept at work in the emery room at the scale shops until about two weeks ago. He was born at Northumberland, N. H., 56 years ago and came to St. Johnsbury at 16 years of age. He entered the emery room at that time and has worked there ever since. He has been one of the leaders of Grace Methodist church during his residence here, was class leader, assistant superintendent and a teacher in the Sunday School. He was a man of strong Christian character and one whom everybody respected. Two brothers, Caleb H. of St. Johnsbury and George A.
Marshall of Darlington, Wis., survive him, together with a widow and one daughter. The funeral was held Tuesday. Rev. Thomas Tyrie officiated, assisted by Rev. Joseph Hamilton. Music was furnished by a mixed quartette.
His associates in the polishing department, 20 in number, attended the funeral in a body. Mr. Marshall was a member of Passumpsic Lodge, F. & A. M.

Among the Churches.—President H.
T. Fuller of Drury College, Springfield, Mo., preached at the South church last Sunday morning upon the uniqueness of Christ's love. Dr. Fuller was given a cordial greeting and preached an excellent sermon.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Heath preached at the North church last Sunday morning after his summer vacation. At the morning service H. G. Tucker of Boston presided at the organ and in the evening Alfred H. Brooks played.

Owing to several removals from town the choir at the Methodist church has been reorganized, and beginning with next Sunday the personnel for the year is as follows: Miss Ethel Abbott, soprano; Mrs. W. H. McMillan, alto; Ralph Parker, tenor; S. D. Atwood, bass and leader; Miss Batchelder, organist. Miss Batchelder comes here from Newport and Mr. Parker's home is at East Burke.

Rev. Thomas Tyrie returned Monday night from his vacation and will occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

Christian Science service every Sunday morning at 10.45 at Odd Fellows' block.
Subject next Sunday, "Righteousness of Giving." All are welcome. Friday evening service at 7.30.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.—The annual meeting of the association will be held on Tuesday evening, Sept. 14, when the officers and directors for the coming year will be chosen.

Last Sunday Miss S. Louise Barton of Boston gave a very helpful address on "Decision of Character" at the men's meeting. There was a good attendance.

Next Sunday the men's meeting will be addressed by Michael J. Riley, the Bowery evangelist, of New York, who was once the champion jig and reel dancer of England and Ireland. Two years ago he could neither read nor write and was a prosperous saloon keeper on "the Bowery," being a well-known character in Tammany politics, controlling over 500 votes there. The story of his downfall and subsequent rescue from the gutter is told in his address, "The White Slave, or Thirty Years' Life on the Bowery." He has recently spoken before large meetings of men in Y. M. C. A.'s of New England. Every man in St. Johnsbury should plan to attend the service next Sunday, which will be held out-of-doors on the court house lawn, if the weather permits.

Congregational Club Outing.—The summer outing of the Passumpsic Congregational club was held at Newport Wednesday with about 100 members and friends in attendance. The visitors arrived in Newport at 1 o'clock. An excellent dinner was served in the Congregational church by the ladies of that society, and then all boarded the steamer, "Lady of the Lake," for the trip around the beautiful lake. When the steamer started on the return trip to Newport the company gathered in the cabin where the literary exercises of the day were held, Rev. J. K. Fuller of Barton Landing presiding.

The exercises opened with singing by the Priscilla quartette. The address of welcome was given by Rev. C. E. Fay of the Newport Congregational church.

Among other things he said that this club was organized to avoid isolation as one of its objects. Some of us as pastors might get too confined to our work if it were not for an occasional outing. In these days of electricity we all know what insulation means. When the insulation is removed the sparks of electricity fly. Thus it is with us when we get out, detached from our regular occupation, the sparks of electricity fly, we receive new life and return to our work with increased vigor. Thus another object of the club is recreation. We can find you many ways to enjoy recreation in Newport. To obtain information is still another object. We get together, talk over different matters in our line of work and go home with new ideas that are sure to help us. Again we welcome you to Newport because we think that, under the inspiration of this beautiful body of water surrounded with its beautiful scenery, you cannot fail to find information here that you can't find anywhere else. Newport's air, scenery and her men of intelligence of whom we are justly proud, cannot fail to give you inspiration, and, though now on water, we extend you a cordial welcome to Newport.

Prof. Henry Fairbanks responded, saying that all were glad to be welcomed to Newport whether afloat or ashore. Mr.
Fairbanks then gave an interesting and instructive address on the influence of Congregationalism from its very beginning. Founded with the loftiest ideas, with the strongest intellectual stimulus and uplift, it was a great factor in character building and the main element in moulding the strongest race upon the continent and the church life in New England. When the early pioneers were well settled in the southern part of New England the most enterprising and vigorous commenced to move north into the Connecticut and Champlain valleys in search of new country. They thus brought into Vermont and New Hampshire the best types of sturdy manhood, brought up under the influence of Congregationalism. When we speak of New England character we mean that moulded by the Congregational church. It produced in those early days such men as Ethan Allen and the many other brave Green Mountain boys. In all its history Congregationalism and patriotism have stood side by side. Mr. Fairbanks closed with a plea for more life in the Congregationalism of our state.

Mr. Fuller then said that the sort of go-as-you-please programme the committee had been obliged to hastily arrange had proven a great success, and they had no apologies to make for it. He wished to congratulate Mr. Fay for his ability in taking to the water like a duck when he had prepared an address for the land.
The chairman then called upon Rev. Dr.
Heath of St. Johnsbury for a fish story.
Dr. Heath having just returned from his vacation spent at the sea side was able to tell a brand new one in an entertaining manner. Bernice Webb of Newport gave a recitation, finely rendered. A vote of thanks was extended to the Priscilla quartette for their several selections so finely rendered and to others who had helped to make the outing so enjoyable.
The literary part of the occasion was then over.

The trip on the lake was greatly enjoyed by all. The day was a perfect one for the outing. Newport was reached about 8 o'clock, and soon after the party was being carried homeward on the Sherbrooke fair special.

WEDDING BELLS.

Buckham-Tyler.

The marriage of Miss Martha G. Tyler, daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Josiah Tyler, to Matthew H. Buckham of Burlington, was solemnized at Polela, the home of William C. Tyler, the bride's brother, on Thursday evening, Sept. 2, at 6 o'clock.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. A.
C. Keed of Manchester, Vt., assisted by Rev. Dr. A. H. Heath, pastor of the North church in this place, and witnessed only by the relatives and nearest friends.
Palm and potted plants, with festoons of asparagus vines, decorated the parlor where the marriage service took place, while masses of gladioli and ferns were used in the other rooms. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Alfred H.
Brooks as the bridal party entered the room. Miss Nellie C. Tyler, youngest sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor.
The bride's gown was white organdie over white silk with trimmings of valenciennes lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried Jacqueminot roses. After the ceremony President and Mrs. Buckham received hearty congratulations from their friends, after which a wedding supper was served.

The bride was the recipient of many choice and exquisite gifts which were arranged in the upper hall. The presents included beautiful single pieces and sets of sterling silver, several water colors, and other pictures, a handsome onyx clock, delicate pieces of china, a banquet lamp, several books and many other handsome articles.

President and Mrs. Buckham will spend a few weeks at the seashore returning to their Burlington home the latter part of September. The bride has been a leader in religious and social circles here and carries to her new home the best wishes of a host of friends. President Buckham is one of the leading educators of New England and has many friends in St.
Johnsbury and vicinity.

Among the friends present from out of town were Col. and Mrs. G. G. Benedict, James Benedict, Charles Buckham, Rev. and Mrs. P. M. Snyder, all of Burlington; Mrs. B. L. Benedict of Brooklyn; Mrs.
Thomas Buckham of Fairbault, Minn.; Rev. John Buckham and Margaret Buck-ham of Salem, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Clark of Bridgeport, Conn.; Miss Kate E. Tyler and Miss Julia R. Tyler, both of Northampton, Mass.; Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Reed, William E. Reed and Albert M. Reed, all of Manchester.

Stevens-Richards.

Fred B. Stevens and Miss Minnie G.
Richards were married last week Wednesday, Rev. M. C. Henderson officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the future home of the young couple, which has been nicely fitted up for them.
Mr. Stevens is a clerk in the Citizens Savings Bank, and the third employee to be married in the last two years.

Many gifts were received, notably, a chair from the directors of the bank, a clock from his companions in business, and an ancestral easy chair from the grooms grandmother, Mrs. E. Bowker.

After a short bridal trip, Mr. and Mrs.
Stevens will be pleased to receive their friends at No. 11 Portland Street.

Reception and Presentation.

On Sunday last at 5 p. m. the members of the new American Catholic parish of St.
Johnsbury assembled at the residence of John Lynch in Summerville to pay
